INTRODUCTION:
FORMS PACKET FOR PRO SE DEBTORS

Bankruptcy Court staff may not give legal advice. Staff may not assist you with completion of these forms.

The forms in this packet are provided as a courtesy and are the minimum needed to begin an individual or joint (i.e. non-business) bankruptcy case. Consult the enclosed Chapter 7 and Chapter 13 forms checklists for more information. If you fail to file the required forms that are not included in this packet, the Court will give you additional time to do so after the original filing date. Your case may be dismissed if you do not file the required documents by the end of that additional time.

The Court's website contains extensive information for parties filing a bankruptcy case without an attorney. Links to forms needed to complete filing and information about available legal services are available at www.insb.uscourts.gov.

Public Access to Court Electronic Records (PACER) is an electronic public access service that allows you to obtain case and docket information online. PACER is provided by the Federal Judiciary in keeping with its commitment to providing public access to court information via a centralized service. To register please visit www.pacer.gov or call the PACER Service Center at (800)-676-6856.

WARNING: Read the instructions on credit counseling posted in the lobby and on the Court's Website under Debtor Information before you file.

DEBTOR'S ELECTRONIC NOTICING REQUEST (DeBN)

INITIAL REQUEST: (Check this box to begin receiving notices and orders from the U.S. Bankruptcy Court via email)

Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9036, I hereby request receipt of court notices and orders via email, instead of U.S. mail, from the Bankruptcy Noticing Center (BNC) through the U.S. Bankruptcy Court's Debtor Electronic Bankruptcy Noticing (DeBN) program.

I understand that this request is limited to receipt of only notices and orders issued by the U. S. Bankruptcy Court. I will continue to receive documents filed by all other parties, such as the trustee and creditors, via U.S. mail or in person pursuant to court rules.

I understand that I will receive electronic notice of any documents issued by the court in any current or future bankruptcy or adversary case from any bankruptcy court district in which I am listed with the same name and address, including cases where I am listed as a creditor.

I understand that the first time the BNC receives an email bounce-back (undeliverable email); my DeBN account will be automatically disabled. I will then receive notices and orders via U.S. mail, and I must file an updated request form if I wish to reactivate my account.

I understand that enrollment in DeBN is completely voluntarily, and I may file a request to deactivate my account at any time.

UPDATE TO ACCOUNT INFORMATION: (Check this box to make changes to your existing DeBN account)

I request the following update(s) to my DeBN account: (check one)

- I have a new email address as indicated BELOW
- I request review of my existing DeBN account to verify name and address information is correct.
- I request reactivation of my DeBN account so that I may receive court notices and orders via email, instead of U. S. mail.

REQUEST TO DEACTIVATE ELECTRONIC NOTICING: (Check this box to request deactivation of your DeBN account)

I request deactivation of my DeBN account. I understand that by deactivating my account, I will begin receiving notices and orders issued by the U.S. Bankruptcy Court via U.S. mail, instead of email.

I understand that I will continue to receive electronic notices until such time as the Court has deactivated my account.

I am a debtor in this bankruptcy case, or the debtor's authorized representative if the debtor is a business, and I have read the applicable section check-marked above and understand and agree to the terms and conditions set forth therein. Neither the U.S. Bankruptcy Court nor the BNC bears any liability for errors resulting from the information I have submitted on this form.

I understand my account will be activated within 48 hours of the filing of this form.

Official Form 101

Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy

12/15

The bankruptcy forms use you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, these forms use you to ask for information from both debtors. For example, if a form asks, “Do you own a car,” the answer would be yes if either debtor owns a car. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

8. How you will pay the fee

I will pay the entire fee when I file my petition. Please check with the clerk's office in your local court for more details about how you may pay. Typically, if you are paying the fee yourself, you may pay with cash, cashier's check, or money order. If your attorney is submitting your payment on your behalf, your attorney may pay with a credit card or check with a pre-printed address.

I need to pay the fee in installments. If you choose this option, sign and attach the Application for Individuals to Pay The Filing Fee in Installments (Official Form 103A).

I request that my fee be waived (You may request this option only if you are filing for Chapter 7. By law, a judge may, but is not required to, waive your fee, and may do so only if your income is less than 150% of the official poverty line that applies to your family size and you are unable to pay the fee in installments). If you choose this option, you must fill out the Application to Have the Chapter 7 Filing Fee Waived (Official Form 103B) and file it with your petition.

Part 5: Explain Your Efforts to Receive a Briefing About Credit Counseling15. Tell the court whether you have received a briefing about credit counseling.

The law requires that you receive a briefing about credit counseling before you file for bankruptcy. You must truthfully check one of the following choices. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file.

If you file anyway, the court can dismiss your case, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors can begin collection activities again.

About Debtor 1:

You must check one:

- I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

- I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.

- I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy.

If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.

- I am not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling because of:

Incapacity. I have a mental illness or a mental deficiency that makes me incapable of realizing or making rational decisions about finances.

Disability. My physical disability causes me to be unable to participate in a briefing in person, by phone, or through the internet, even after I reasonably tried to do so.

Active duty. I am currently on active military duty in a military combat zone.

If you believe you are not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling, you must file a motion for waiver of credit counseling with the court.

About Debtor 2 (Spouse Only in a Joint Case):

You must check one:

- I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

For you

I have examined this petition, and I declare under penalty of perjury that the information provided is true and correct.

If I have chosen to file under Chapter 7, I am aware that I may proceed, if eligible, under Chapter 7, 11, 12, or 13 of title 11, United States Code. I understand the relief available under each chapter, and I choose to proceed under Chapter 7.

If no attorney represents me and I did not pay or agree to pay someone who is not an attorney to help me fill out this document, I have obtained and read the notice required by 11 U.S.C. § 342(b).

I request relief in accordance with the chapter of title 11, United States Code, specified in this petition.

I understand making a false statement, concealing property, or obtaining money or property by fraud in connection with a bankruptcy case can result in fines up to $250,000, or imprisonment for up to 20 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 1341, 1519, and 3571.

For you if you are filing this bankruptcy without an attorney

If you are represented by an attorney, you do not need to file this page.

The law allows you, as an individual, to represent yourself in bankruptcy court, but you should understand that many people find it extremely difficult to represent themselves successfully. Because bankruptcy has long-term financial and legal consequences, you are strongly urged to hire a qualified attorney.

To be successful, you must correctly file and handle your bankruptcy case. The rules are very technical, and a mistake or inaction may affect your rights. For example, your case may be dismissed because you did not file a required document, pay a fee on time, attend a meeting or hearing, or cooperate with the court, case trustee, U.S. trustee, bankruptcy administrator, or audit firm if your case is selected for audit. If that happens, you could lose your right to file another case, or you may lose protections, including the benefit of the automatic stay.

You must list all your property and debts in the schedules that you are required to file with the court. Even if you plan to pay a particular debt outside of your bankruptcy, you must list that debt in your schedules. If you do not list a debt, the debt may not be discharged. If you do not list property or properly claim it as exempt, you may not be able to keep the property. The judge can also deny you a discharge of all your debts if you do something dishonest in your bankruptcy case, such as destroying or hiding property, falsifying records, or lying. Individual bankruptcy cases are randomly audited to determine if debtors have been accurate, truthful, and complete. Bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime; you could be fined and imprisoned.

If you decide to file without an attorney, the court expects you to follow the rules as if you had hired an attorney. The court will not treat you differently because you are filing for yourself. To be successful, you must be familiar with the United States Bankruptcy Code, the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, and the local rules of the court in which your case is filed. You must also be familiar with any state exemption laws that apply.

Are you aware that filing for bankruptcy is a serious action with long-term financial and legal consequences?

- No
- Yes

Are you aware that bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime and that if your bankruptcy forms are inaccurate or incomplete, you could be fined or imprisoned?

- No

Did you pay or agree to pay someone who is not an attorney to help you fill out your bankruptcy forms?

By signing here, I acknowledge that I understand the risks involved in filing without an attorney. I have read and understood this notice, and I am aware that filing a bankruptcy case without an attorney may cause me to lose my rights or property if I do not properly handle the case.

Use this form to tell the court about any Social Security or federal Individual Taxpayer Identification numbers you have used. Do not file this form as part of the public case file. This form must be submitted separately and must not be included in the court's public electronic records. Please consult local court procedures for submission requirements.

To protect your privacy, the court will not make this form available to the public. You should not include a full Social Security Number or Individual Taxpayer Number on any other document filed with the court. The court will make only the last four digits of your numbers known to the public. However, the full numbers will be available to your creditors, the U.S. Trustee or bankruptcy administrator, and the trustee assigned to your case.

Making a false statement, concealing property, or obtaining money or property by fraud in connection with a bankruptcy case can result in fines up to $250,000, or imprisonment for up to 20 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 1341, 1519, and 3571.

Creditor List (f.k.a. creditor matrix)

A Creditor List is a listing of the name and address (creditor record) of each creditor in a bankruptcy case. It must be filed or presented electronically. A diskette, CD, DVD or USB drive with the Creditor List file in TXT format must be submitted for bankruptcy cases filed non-electronically (on paper), pursuant to S. D. Ind. B-1007-1\(b\). Electronic filers must upload a Creditor List file through the Creditor Maintenance menu option in ECF.

LIST REQUIREMENTS

- A Verification of Creditor List must be prepared, printed and signed by the debtor and joint debtor, if there is one. It must be filed with the court within 14 days from the date of filing of the case.
- The creditor list on the diskette, CD, DVD or USB drive must include all of the names and addresses listed on Schedules D, E, F, G and H.
- If any federal agency other than the IRS is listed on the schedules (e.g., FHA, Dept. of Agriculture (USDA), HUD, etc.), add the U.S. Attorney to the list using the following address:

U.S. Attorney's Office
10 W. Market St. Ste. 2100
Indianapolis, IN 46204-3048

Note: The following creditors are not federal agencies:

- Sallie Mae
- Fannie Mae
- Freddy Mac

- Do not include the debtors, any trustee, or the U.S. Trustee on the list.

NOTE: The attorney for the debtor(s) may be included on the list in a Chapter 13 case ONLY to facilitate filing a claim. To eliminate duplicate noticing, the attorney name and address on the list must exactly match the Attorney ECF User Record.

- Pursuant to Fed.R.Bankr.P. 5003(e), federal and state governmental agencies may file statements with the court designating their mailing addresses. These addresses are conclusively presumed to be the proper mailing addresses for the governmental agencies. A list of agencies that have filed such statements with the Clerk's Office for the Southern District of Indiana can be found here. If any of those agencies are listed on the schedules, they must be added to the creditor list (one time only) using only the addresses designated on that page.
- Do not include account numbers or duplicate creditor names.
- The list must be in one column with no more than six lines per creditor name/address. There must be a blank line between creditor records.

- Each line may contain no more than 40 characters, including punctuation and spaces.
- Each record may be up to 6 lines – the Creditor’s name must be on the first line and the City, State and Zip Code on the bottom line.
- Do not include page numbers, headers, footers, debtor names, etc. on the Creditor List -- only the creditor information.
- The names and addresses (Creditor Records) should be aligned to the left margin in one single column, also known as “justified left”.
- Format to use for each creditor name and address:
 - First Line : Creditor’s Name
 - Second Line: Attention of: or address
 - Third Line: Address (if needed)
 - Bottom Line: City, State (2-letter abbreviation in CAPS) and Zip Code
- Format to use for foreign creditors:
 - First Line : Creditor’s Name
 - Second Line: Address line 1
 - Third Line: Remainder of the address except for the country
 - Bottom Line: Country

Example of a correctly formatted foreign address:

Associated Aluminium Ltd
 132 West Park Street
 Birmingham WM1 3NS
 United Kingdom

- The creditor list must be saved as a text file (filename.txt)

Part 2: Sign Below

By signing here, you state that you are unable to pay the full filing fee at once, that you want to pay the fee in installments, and that you understand that:

- You must pay your entire filing fee before you make any more payments or transfer any more property to an attorney, bankruptcy petition preparer, or anyone else for services in connection with your bankruptcy case.
- You must pay the entire fee no later than 120 days after you first file for bankruptcy, unless the court later extends your deadline. Your debts will not be discharged until your entire fee is paid.
- If you do not make any payment when it is due, your bankruptcy case may be dismissed, and your rights in other bankruptcy proceedings may be affected.

ORDER

This Order is entered to establish minimum requirements for payment of filing fees in installments on and after June 1, 2014. This order becomes effective on June 1, 2014, and replaces General Order 12-0005 on that date.

Pursuant to Fed.R.Bankr.P. 1006(b)(2), the Court fixes the number and amount of the installments as follows:

Chapter	Payment at Filing	One Month After Filing	Two Months After Filing	Three Months After Filing
7	$84	$84	$84	$83
11	$430	$429	$429	$429
12	$69	$69	$69	$68
13	$78	$78	$77	$77

On and after June 1, 2014, parties filing Applications to Pay Filing Fee in Installments shall propose a payment plan in accordance with this schedule.

Payments shall be due, as shown, on the same day of the month as the date on which the petition was filed. If that date falls on a day that the Court is closed, payment is due no later than the next business day.

The Application must substantially conform to Official Form #3A. This form is available in the Office of the Bankruptcy Clerk or on the Court's website at www.insb.uscourts.gov.
